What is Peer Coaching?

Peer Coaching is a program where ASC students are paired with upper year students who will assist them with organizing and time management; learning to use the online platforms (DC Connect/MyDC); clarifying requirements of assignments; brainstorming ideas; locating campus services; and providing advice/social support. These meetings occur regularly every week unless cancelled.

What Peer Coaching is NOT

A Peer Coach is not a tutor; editor of written work; or counsellor. For these supports students can be referred to other campus services.
