

A Movement Beyond Borders . . .

UNDERSTANDING THE WORLD AS A WHOLE

Megan Myles

Councillor, Northern Bruce Peninsula,
Ontario, Canada

Megan grew up on the Bruce Peninsula in Ontario, Canada, where her family has lived for several generations. She has traveled widely and returned to the peninsula full-time three years ago to launch her business, The Fitz Hostel.

In the November, 2018, she was elected councillor on her local municipal council and became the youngest female to hold this role.

Megan is the past chair of the Bruce Peninsula Environment Group (BPEG), and through this role, she recently initiated the Northern Bruce Peninsula Sustainable Tourism Working Group.

Megan graduated with a Bachelor of Arts and Sciences from Quest University Canada in Squamish, British Columbia where she specialized in collaboration and environmental studies and earned an honourable mention for her thesis on collaboration among small-scale farmers in rural Ontario. She worked on a strategic planning team with Parks Canada for Fathom Five National Marine Park and at a few farms and breweries.

She is the recipient of the Lieutenant Governor's Ontario Medal for Young Volunteers (2011) and the Sources of Knowledge Award of Excellence (2016).

Any chance she gets, Megan enjoys hiking, road trips, live music, and sipping coffee at the farmers' market on Saturday morning.
