How the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) is affecting immigration, refugees, citizenship and passport services

To manage the outbreak of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19), the Prime Minister announced travel restrictions that will limit travel to Canada. Find out how these restrictions affect immigration, refugees, citizenship and passport applications.

Follow:

How the COVID-19 is affecting immigration?

The travel restrictions announced by the Prime Minister:

International Students

Visitors

Foreign Workers

Temporary foreign workers, some international students and approved permanent residents:

The travel restriction exemptions:

- you need to pass a health check conducted by airlines
- When you arrive in Canada we'll assess your health
- You must isolate for 14 days even if you have no symptoms. This is mandatory.

Restrictions and Exemptions for Travelers to Canada:

A) International Students are exempt if:

If you have  a valid study permit or an approval letter for a study permit on or before March 18, 2020

What you need before you travel to Canada:

i) To pass a health check

ii) You must isolate for 14 days at POE (you must have a plan to isolate)

B) Visitors- If you are planning to leave Canada:

Visitors can't travel to Canada even if they have a valid visitor visa or an eTA

Exemptions: if they are:

- a person registered under Canada's Indian Act
- a protected person
- an invitation of the Canadian government
- an immediate family member of a Canadian citizen/ permanent resident
- a transiting passenger, as long as you stay in a Canadian airport to complete your connection
- a member of the Canadian military, visiting forces or their family member
- an accredited diplomat or family member (includes NATO)
- an air or marine crew member

C) Temporary foreign workers are exempt if:

If they have  a valid work permit or if they are coming for an essential purpose

What they need before their travel to Canada:

i) To pass a health check

ii) They must isolate for 14 days at POE (they must have a plan to isolate)

Part 2: Post-Graduation Work Permit

Students who are graduating this semester may receive “Program Completion Letter” by the middle of July 2020”

What is a PGWP?

- Provides permission to remain in Canada and work full-time
- “Open” work permit

Updates to the PGWP program

Remember this

180

You have 180 days from Program Completion to apply for a PGWP
(changed from 90)

Your study permit can expire within the 180 days

Change to visitor visa if SP expires
before applying for PGWP

After you apply

You've heard you can only work part-time?

You can work part-time until you receive your course completion letter. At that time you MUST stop working until you have submitted your PGWP application

You can work full-time BUT...

If your SP was valid at the time you submitted your PGWP application, you are able to work full-time while you are waiting for a decision

No valid SP?

If you did not have a valid SP at the time you submitted your PGWP application, you cannot work

Flag-poling

We do not recommend that you apply for a PGWP at a Canadian border. We recommend that you apply online

Spousal work permit

Spouses and common-law partners of post-graduation work permit holders may be eligible to apply for an open work permit under the C41 exemption

1 PGWP...use it wisely

You can only be issued 1 PGWP. Use your PGWP time wisely to set you up for future success

Working Hours for graduating students

Working before you apply

If you are eligible to work in your final term, you can continue working up to 20 hours a week off campus until you receive your Program Completion Letter

Stop Working: When you receive your Program Completion Letter

Working after you've applied

After submitting your PGWP application, you can begin working full-time while you are waiting for a decision from IRCC

Online Courses & PGWP

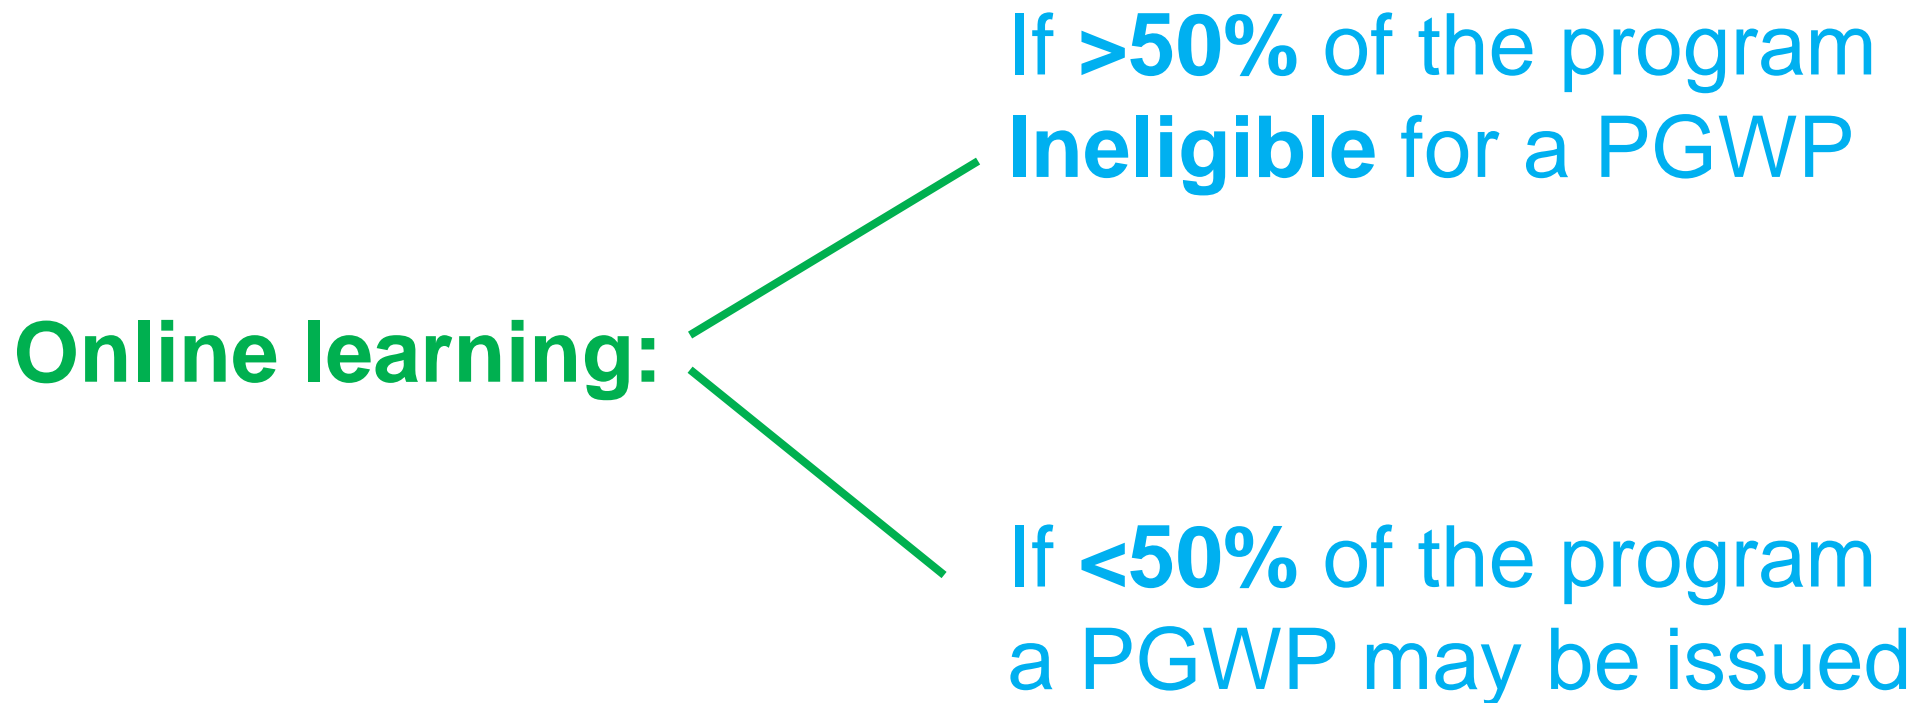

Your eligibility for the Post-Graduation Work Permit Program won't be affected

If your in-class courses are being moved to an online-only due to COVID-19.

International students in this situation may begin their classes while outside Canada and may complete up to 50% of their program while outside Canada if they cannot travel to Canada sooner.

Distance (Online) Learning

Online learning: Not eligible for a PGWP

Questions have been asked from IRCC

1) Official Transcripts and PGWP?

2) Co-op Work Permit?

3) Deferring from a Semester:
How the 150-day rule can affect their status & PGWP?

- Find your program
- Look for Field Placement or Co-op in the tabs

The screenshot displays the Durham College website's program page for Human Resources Management (graduate certificate). The header includes the college logo and navigation links: PROGRAMS AND COURSES, ADMISSIONS, FINANCIAL INFO, STUDENT LIFE, ABOUT, and CONTACT. The breadcrumb trail shows: Homepage / Programs / Human Resources Management (graduate certificate). The main heading is 'Human Resources Management (graduate certificate)'. Below it, a table lists program details:

CREDENTIAL	Ontario College Graduate Certificate
LOCATION	Pickering Learning Site
SCHOOL	School of Business, IT & Management (BITM)
LENGTH	Three Semesters
OCAS CODE	HURM
NEXT INTAKE	January 2020 +VIEW ALL INTAKES

2. You must have a co-op work permit BEFORE starting your work term even it is unpaid or Even if it is now done online
