

Attention: DC Kids Clinic

School of Health and Community Services

Please contact finemotorclinic.info@durhamcollege.ca if you require assistance to complete this form.

The clinic will offer fine motor intervention to groups of children with fine motor delays. This service will offer an Occupational Therapist (OT) assessment during the first week, followed by weekly treatment sessions with the OTA/PTA students and under the direct supervision of the OT to implement the treatment plan. Services will be provided free of charge, with a one-time administration fee of $30 for registration.

Who?

Children aged 4-10 with fine motor delays who consent to and can actively participate in group therapy with OTA/PTA students under the direction of an OT. Clients will be screened and allocated to an appropriate treatment group. It is expected that clients will participate for the 13 week duration. A waitlist will be created and maintained. Clients will be contacted as spots become open in treatment sessions.

Where?

Fall 2021 sessions will be held virtually online.
