Academic Freedom

Academic freedom includes the right to enquire, investigate, conduct research, pursue, teach and communicate freely about scholarly matters without fear of impairment to position or other reprisal.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity refers to the pursuit of scholarly activity in an open, honest and responsible manner. Breaches of academic integrity refer to a variety of practices including, but not limited to: copying another person's work; using unauthorized materials or resources during an evaluation; obtaining unauthorized copies of evaluations in advance; collaborating without permission; colluding or providing unauthorized assistance; falsifying academic documents or records; misrepresenting academic credentials, buying, selling, stealing or soliciting, exchanging or transacting materials or information for the purpose of academic gain; bribing or attempting to bribe personnel; impersonation; submitting the same work in more than one course without authorization; improper use of computer technology and the internet; depriving others of academic resources; misrepresenting reasons for special consideration of academic work; plagiarizing or failing to acknowledge ideas, data, graphics or other content without proper and full acknowledgement; and any unauthorized use of generative or other artificial intelligence.

Academic Program of Instruction

Academic Programs of Instruction outline the full composition of a DC program offering, and are built in alignment with and adhere to the Ontario Qualifications Framework. Programs of Instruction comprise, but are not limited to the Faculty offering, program description and program learning outcomes, the program of study, delivery mode, work integrated learning (WIL) opportunities, accreditations, and admission, advancement and graduation requirements. The Program of Instruction maps out the requirements that lead to the awarding of one of the following credentials: Recognition of Achievement, Durham College Certificate (Local Board), Ontario College Certificate, Ontario College Diploma, Ontario College Advanced Diploma, Ontario College Graduate Certificate, Baccalaureate Degree or Honours Baccalaureate Degree.

Academic Progression Status

Defines the level of achievement within a full-time program.

There are three levels of academic progression and these are dependent upon a student's SGPA.

For certificate, diploma, advanced diploma, graduate certificate and degree programs, progression requirements are based upon the principle that for most programs, students must achieve a PGPA of 2.0 to be eligible to graduate. The academic progression status is defined as follows:

- Good Standing SGPA ≥ 2.00
- On Probation SGPA ≥ 1.00 and < 2.00
- Academic Suspension SGPA < 1.00

Access

Access refers to freedom of entry onto, into and use of College property, facilities and resources consistent with an individual's need and the College's need.

Access Control, Role-Based

Role-Based Access Control refers to a system of permissions where access to a specific resource is defined by permissions assigned to specific roles; a role is given to a user based on the user's position in the organization.

Access Copyright

A collective society that administers the rights to copyrighted works created by writers, visual artists, and publishers across Canada and internationally.

Accessibility Coach

An Accessibility Coach in the Access and Support Centre helps students with disabilities/exceptionalities navigate their educational journey by promoting equitable access to learning. This role involves supporting students in identifying personalized strategies, resources, and accommodations to successfully achieve their academic goals.

Accessible

Under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), "accessible" refers to the design of environments, services, and information in a way that removes barriers and ensures equal access for individuals with disabilities/exceptionalities.

Accessible Formats

Accessible formats refer to types of content or materials that are created or adapted to be usable by individuals with various disabilities/exceptionalities. These formats ensure that information is accessible to people with visual, auditory, cognitive, or physical limitations. Examples include:

- Braille for those who are blind or visually impaired
- Large print materials for individuals with low vision
- Audio recordings or text-to-speech for those with visual impairments
- Closed captions or subtitles for videos to assist individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing
- Simplified language or easy-to-read formats for people with cognitive or learning disabilities

Accessible formats are key to ensuring inclusivity and equal access to information.

Accommodation, Employees

The change of work or work methods in order to assist an employee to perform the duties and responsibilities of their role, without causing undue hardship for Durham College or other employees.

Academic Accommodations

Academic accommodations ensure equal access to learning and services without altering academic standards or essential learning outcomes. They do not guarantee specific results and are granted on a case-by-case basis with appropriate documentation. Accommodations may be:

- Teaching and learning accommodations: e.g., note-taking support
- Assessment accommodations: e.g., private exam spaces
- Environmental accommodations: e.g., strategic seating
- Auxiliary supports: e.g., sign language interpreters, alternate formats, or assistive technology

Accommodations can be:

- Permanent: for the duration of the program
- Interim: while awaiting further documentation
- Temporary: for a set period
- Retroactive: applied after a missed deadline or evaluation

All accommodations respect the college's academic integrity policies.

Access Plan

An Access Plan is an official document developed by the Access and Support Centre (ASC) guided by the student's documentation from a regulated health professional, the student's accommodation history, departmental procedures and college guidelines. These plans aim to address functional limitations and remove or reduce barriers to access. In some instances, the Plan may require input from the Faculty or Facilities Management.

With the student's consent, the Access Plan can be shared with faculty to outline the specific accommodations needed to ensure equitable access to education for students with disabilities/exceptionalities. The plan outlines the approved accommodations for that student such as extended test time, note-taking assistance, accessible course materials, and other accommodations tailored to the student's needs while maintaining academic standards.

Active Learning

Active learning is the process of learning new ideas, skills and attitudes by doing, performing, and taking action. The action can be either mental or physical and can include, but is not restricted to, devices such as games, simulations, introspection, and role playing.

Advanced Standing

Admission to a second or higher term or year of a program because transfer credits were granted for courses completed at another institution.

Advertising

Advertising refers to the paid promotion of Durham College and its offering to its target audiences.

Advisor, Student Conduct Policy

A person of the individual's choice who acts in an advisory role during the investigation and adjudication process (e.g., friend, family member, legal counsel). The Advisor may be present during investigation interviews and adjudication hearings. At the adjudication hearing the Advisor may consult with the student but shall not be allowed to speak.

Aegrotat Designation

Defined as a non-numeric passing grade used as credit towards graduation requirements, but not used in SGPA and PGPA calculations. Aegrotat designation is applied only in exceptional circumstances and is represented as AEG on official transcripts.

Affiliated Partners

Organizations with long-standing, comprehensive business or community relationship with the College.

Affiliated Colleagues

- Current Durham College contract employees;
- Employees of campus contractors – limited to food services, security, housekeeping and the police learning centre;
- Immediate family members of Durham College full-time employees (spouse or spousal equivalent, and dependent children); and,
- Ontario Tech University full-time employees.

Alcohol

Alcohol includes, but is not limited to spirits, wine, beer, coolers, and liqueurs.

All Gender

A descriptive phrase denoting inclusiveness of all gender expressions and identities. It is also defined as being free of explicit or implicit reference to sex or gender.

Alumni

A person who has successfully completed a Durham College postsecondary diploma, certificate program, graduate certificate program, Skilled Trades and Apprenticeship program, degree, a person who has completed a continuing education program that meets the criteria for attending convocation ceremonies or, a person who has been granted Honourary Credential status by the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

Alumni Association

Alumni Association and its Board of Directors refer to the body that works with the Alumni office to provide programs and activities that will regularly serve alumni and create new partnerships that will benefit members. As a member of the Durham College family, the association supports the goals of the College and represents the views and needs of alumni.

Alumni Record

Alumni record refers to the graduate's current personal and professional status and contact information as known by the Alumni office.

Amortization

Amortization refers to the accounting process used to record the reduction in the value of an asset due to usage, passage of time, wear and tear, technological outdateding or obsolescence, depletion or other such factors.

Annual Program Review

Annual Program Review (APR) is a self-study process which consists of an assessment of the current quality of the program using established criteria within the APR report template. The APR process is conducted by the executive dean/associate dean/dean/director (or designate) and the program faculty members and is guided by the mission and strategic plan of the College. The APR process includes the collection and analysis of information relevant to the academic program and a critical self-assessment against set criteria with the intention developing a set of recommendations to be implemented, as needed.

Application Cycle

The application cycle is defined from September to the following August, including the September, January and May intakes.

Apprenticeship

Apprenticeship refers to the classroom portion of a program leading to certificate of qualification in a skilled trade.

Approved Program Duration

The duration of the program as submitted to and approved by the Ministry at the time funding approval was granted.

Approved Scanning Vendor

The Approved Scanning Vendor is an external organization approved by the PCI Council to conduct external vulnerability scanning services for the purpose of auditing adherence with the PCI DSS standard.

Approver

The supervisors, starting with the immediate supervisor, up the chain of command to the appropriate level of signing authority for the expenditure.

Articulation Agreement

Official agreement between two (bilateral) or more (multilateral) post-secondary institutions that defines the terms and conditions enabling students to transfer between specific programs. These agreements may also determine which courses or programs taken at the sending institution will apply to graduation requirements at the receiving institution.

Asset

Asset refers to any College-owned or leased equipment, vehicle, machinery, supplies, tools, materials, furnishing, computers and any other items of a capital nature belonging to the College.

Asset Management

Asset management refers to any system that monitors and maintains things of value to an entity or group; in this case moveable IT assets. Asset management is a systematic process of deploying, operating, maintaining, upgrading, and disposing of assets cost-effectively.

Assessment, Authentic

Authentic assessment refers to a form of assessment that asks students to perform real-world, complex tasks that demonstrate meaningful application of essential knowledge, skills and attitudes.

Assessment Team

A group of Durham College employees consisting of the Director, Office of Campus Safety, Director, Access and Support Centre and Director, Campus Health and Wellness Centre or designate(s) who review, discuss and devise a support strategy when a student's activities or behaviors have raised significant concern for the student's well-being.

Audit (a course)

Registrant is not eligible for course credit, grading or evaluation. Students seeking to audit a course must declare their intent at the time of registration and will receive this designation upon course completion.

Authentication Factor

An Authentication Factor is a method used to prove the user of a resource is permitted to use the said resource. Examples include a Password, an authentication token or a biometric characteristic.

Author, Policies and Procedures

The Author is the individual tasked with writing the Policy or Procedure.

Balancing of Cash Receipts

Balancing of cash receipts refers to the process of reconciling the total payments collected with the related records in the financial system.

Balance of Probabilities

Proving something on a balance of probabilities means that it is more likely than not to have occurred.

Betterments

Betterments are costs incurred to enhance the service potential of a tangible capital asset. Service potential may be enhanced when there is an increase in the previously assessed service capacity, associated operating costs are lowered, the useful life is extended, or the quality of output is improved.

Board Policy

Policies adopted by the Durham College Board of Governors under four sections: Outcomes, Governance Process, Board-President Relationship and Executive Limitations.

Brand

A Brand is the unique visual, verbal and written attributes, or a combination of these, employed by an organization. Our Brand is the promise of what DC delivers and reflects the College's mission, vision and values and is the foundation upon which business is conducted.

Brands have three primary functions: to help consumers choose from an array of options; to communicate the intrinsic quality of a product or service and reassure customers that they have made the right decision; and to use distinctive imagery, language and associations to encourage customers to identify with the Brand.

Brand Guidelines

DC's Brand guidelines outline the appropriate use of the College's Brand positioning and identity in all visual and written materials and reflects DC's values and beliefs as an institution. The Brand guidelines are an operating manual for looking, speaking, and acting as DC and offer information on when where and how to use the Brand in a wide range of documents.

Breadth Course

Breadth courses develop critical thinking and quantitative reasoning skills, enhance written and verbal communication skills and expand knowledge to support civic engagement.

Bulletin Boards

Refers to any bulletin board or set of adjacent bulletin boards, located on campus for displaying posters.

Business Entity

- (a) Company which is incorporated and has limited liability. The name of the company ends with Limited, Incorporated or Corporation; or
- (b) An unincorporated business. Generally, professional business entities cannot be incorporated: e.g., partnerships with personal liability (accountants, lawyers, doctors).

Business Income

Payments made to an independent contractor. Normally, HST is calculated and paid based on the invoiced amount, unless the individual qualifies as a Small Supplier.

Campus Clubs

Campus Clubs are defined as student groups and organizations that have been ratified by the SA. All students are entitled to participate in any club and its activities. The club may invite alumni and employees of Durham College to participate.

Campus-Wide Message

A Campus-wide message refers to communication to all DC employees; employees of the University of Ontario Institute of Technology (UOIT) if required; and to DC and UOIT students if appropriate.

Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation

Federal legislation that is, in part, intended to prevent the receipt of unwanted commercial electronic communication such as promotional emails, text messages, images or sound.

Cancelled Program

MCU records identify that the College no longer offers the program, no funding has been issued and no students are enrolled.

Capital Assets

Capital assets refer to identified assets that meet all of the following criteria:

- Are held for use in the provision of services, for administrative and academic purposes, for the production of goods or for the maintenance, repair, development or construction of other capital assets.
- Have been acquired, constructed or developed with the intention of being used on a continuing basis.
- Are not intended for sale in the ordinary course of operations.
- Their useful life extends beyond 1 (one) year.
- Have an acquisition value that is equal to or greater than $5,000 including installation costs, shipping/freight, insurance, applicable taxes, and any other costs to get the asset ready for use.

Cardholder Data Environment

The Cardholder Data Environment (CDE) is a segmented area of the network which encompasses applications, hardware, and network services in the transmission, processing, or storing of cardholder data.

Case Manager – Mental Health Supports

A non-clinical employee tasked with advocating for students navigating the Student Well-being and Involuntary Withdrawal policy and procedure. The case manager will be appointed by the lead of the Assessment Team handling a case to provide safe, timely, effective, efficient, equitable, and client-centered supports. The case manager will assist with the transition back to studies should the student need to step away from their school to focus on improving mental health and wellbeing with the goal of engaging impacted students in a success plan that helps them to be effective in the college learning environment. The duties include prioritizing case assignments, collaborating with the student and Assessment Team to create a success plan, reviewing case progress and determining case closure. The Case manager will work with the student to make informed decisions related to academic demands and mental health needs throughout this process.

Cash

Cash refers to all forms of payment accepted by the College, including currency, cheques, credit and debit card.

Cash Collection Centre

Cash collection centre refers to any area within the College that receives and/or handles cash on a regular basis, and is approved by the Finance department as a designated cash collection centre.

Cash Handling

Cash handling refers to the receipt, storage, banking and distribution of cash.

Cause for Concern, Student Conduct

Behaviour(s), communications or a pattern of activities which may indicate an ongoing risk, or alerts a member of the College community to the primary student's conduct.

Cellular Technology

Cellular phones, some tablets and other devices that include cellular enabled technology.

Chief Data Steward

The individual responsible for identifying, training, and supporting Student Data Stewards in the effective performance of their duties. The Chief Data Steward will receive all student data reports prepared by Student Data Stewards that are intended for release to external stakeholders and approve or deny as appropriate, taking into consideration the intended use and college strategic direction.

Cisgender

A person whose gender identity is aligned to or matches what they were designated at birth on the basis of their physical sex characteristics.

Clients

Any individual who accesses services provided by Durham College.

Coach

This position works in various student service areas to assist students in identifying pathways and implementing strategies for successful completion of their college goals.

Coercion

In the context of sexual violence, coercion is unreasonable and persistent pressure for sexual activity. Coercion is the use of emotional manipulation, blackmail, threats to family or friends, or the promise of rewards or special treatment, to persuade someone to do something they do not wish to do, such as being sexual or performing particular sexual acts.

Cold Zone

Conflict of interest is any situation where an individual's private interests are, or may reasonably appear to be, incompatible or in conflict with their duties and responsibilities as a College employee.

Consent, Sexual Activity

The voluntary agreement to engage in the sexual activity in question. It is the act of willingly agreeing to engage in specific sexual behaviour, and requires that a person is able to freely choose between two options: yes and no. This means that there must be an understandable exchange of affirmative words which indicates a willingness to participate in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. It is also imperative that everyone understands the following:

- Silence or non-communication must never be interpreted as consent and a person in a state of diminished judgment cannot consent.
- A person is incapable of giving consent if asleep, unconscious or otherwise unable to communicate.
- A person who has been threatened or coerced (i.e. is not agreeing voluntarily) into engaging in the sexual activity is not consenting to it.
- A person who is drugged is unable to consent.
- A person is usually unable to give consent when under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs.
- A person may be unable to give consent if they have a mental/cognitive disability that prevents them from fully understanding the sexual acts.
- The fact that consent was given in the past to a sexual or dating relationship does not mean that consent is deemed to exist for all future sexual activity.
- A person can withdraw consent at any time during the course of a sexual encounter.
- A person is incapable of giving consent to a person in a position of trust, power, or authority such as a faculty member initiating a relationship with a student whom they teach, or an administrator in a relationship with anyone who reports to that position.
- Consent cannot be given on behalf of another person.

It is the responsibility of the initiator of sexual activity to ensure clear and affirmative responses are communicated at all stages of sexual engagement. It is also the initiator's responsibility to know if the person they are engaging with sexually is of the age of consent as defined in the Criminal Code.

Construction Contract

Any construction contract entered into between the Institution and a contractor and including the various subcontracts to that contract.

Half-Mast

Half-mast refers to the midway point between the top of the mast and its lower level, which is not at the ground but about five feet from the ground level. For example, if the mast is 30-feet high, the midpoint is not 15 feet but $(30-5)/2$, which means the flag should be flown 12.5 feet from the top of the mast.

Handler, Service Animal Policy and Procedure

Defined as a person who as a result of a disability/exceptionality, requires the assistance of a Service Animal and has charge of the Service Animal.

Harassment/Discrimination, Systemic

Systemic harassment/discrimination refers to policies, practices, procedures, actions or inaction that appear neutral, but have an adverse impact associated with one of the prohibited grounds. An example would be a refusal to address or refer to an individual using their lived or preferred pronoun.

Harassment/Workplace Harassment

Harassment is engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against an individual or group that is known, or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome. Harassment may be based on one or more of the prohibited grounds set out in the Code, or it may be any course of inappropriate conduct or comment which makes a reasonable person feel uncomfortable, embarrassed, offended or intimidated and/or results in a poisoned working or learning environment. While harassment is usually defined as resulting from a pattern or course of behaviour, one act may be so egregious that it constitutes harassment on its own. Reasonable action by a College, a manager and/or a supervisor in the course of managing the workplace is not workplace harassment. Examples of this include but are not limited to the following:

- Transfer, demotion, discipline, counsel or dismissal of an employee in a reasonable manner.
- A decision, based on reasonable grounds and facts, not to promote or grant another benefit in connection with an employee's employment or performance.
- The right and responsibility of managers to conduct ongoing evaluations of employee performance at work, which may include reasonable criticism of performance and/or may result in reasonable changes to a person's assignment as a result of an evaluation.

Workplace sexual harassment is also workplace harassment. The prohibited grounds set out in the Code are:

- Age
- Ancestry, colour, race
- Citizenship
- Ethnic origin
- Place of origin
- Creed
- Disability
- Family status
- Marital status (including single status)
- Gender identity, gender expression
- Receipt of public assistance (in housing only)
- Record of offences (in employment only)
- Sex (including pregnancy and breastfeeding)
- Sexual orientation

An honorarium is typically a small payment of appreciation made on non-recurring basis to an individual who is not an employee of the College, to acknowledge the contribution of gratuitous services to the College.

Hot Zone

An unsafe area for persons not wearing appropriate protective equipment.

Human Participants, Research

Human participants are individuals whose data or responses to interventions, stimuli or questions by the researcher are relevant to answering the research question.

Under a broad definition, the research may include human participation:

- Directly in activities through physical participation and may include both active and/or passive involvement;
- Indirectly through the provision for or access to personal data and/or biological material; or
- On behalf of others (parents/legal guardians for those without the capacity to give informed consent and supervisors of individuals under controlled environments (e.g. prisoners, students).

Human Participation, Research

Human participation involves individuals whose data or responses to interventions, stimuli or questions by the research are relevant to answering the research question. Under a broad definition, the research may include human participation:

- Directly in activities through physical participation and may include both active and/or passive involvement;
- Indirectly through the provision for or access to personal data and/or biological material; or
- On behalf of others (parents/legal guardians for those without the capacity to give informed consent and supervisors of individuals under controlled environments (e.g. prisoners, students).

The nature of human participation in research will vary from one project to the next depending on the degree of involvement and an individual's consent. It is recognized that data collected about characteristics and responses may have identifiable private information, which is confidential and must be protected by the researcher.

Incident Management System

A provincially standardized organizational structure, functions, processes and terminology plan to manage incidents.

Incomplete

Course requirements were not completed on time. Students can be approved by Faculty for an extension of up to 60 calendar days after the last day of classes in the course to complete requirements.

Indefinite Program Suspension

Occurs when recruitment ceases, and no further students are admitted. A program that is indefinitely suspended will remain 'active' with MCU, and may be relaunched in the future through the major change process.

Independent Contractor

A business entity or unincorporated business providing products or services under a contract for services. The Independent Contractor (ICON) form is used to verify Independent contractor status for unincorporated businesses.

Informal Report

A verbal or written statement that is reported to the Diversity Office. The report will not result in an investigation.

Informed Consent

Entails potential human participants having voluntarily and freely agreed to participate in a research study on the basis of well-understood information about the objectives of the research and the nature of their participation. It also requires that the consent of human participants is maintained throughout the duration of their participation in the research.

Information Centre for Employees

DC's intranet acts as an information hub used to house college information and resources for employees. A private site, outside of the internet [public], ICE is a self-service hub which facilitates information sharing and collaboration between internal communications, DC working groups, departments, and committees.

Information Custodian

Information custodians are responsible for administering information access controls, implementing and maintaining information control measures, and providing recovery capabilities consistent with the instruction of the Information Owners.

Information Owner

A person that that can authorize or deny access to certain Information, and is responsible for its accuracy, integrity, protection and timeliness. Unless ownership is otherwise designated, Information Owners are typically the heads of different departments that are responsible for the Information.

Information Technology

Information technology includes, but is not limited to: computer systems; networks; data storage media; software applications; hardware; or any other electronic or telecommunications media used for the digital transmission of information, on campus or remotely, through which Durham College provides access or is connected.

Inner Perimeter

A further subdivision of the Outer Perimeter made to refine the isolation of the actual hazard or emergency site.

Inquiry, Research

The process of reviewing an allegation to determine:

- Whether the allegation is responsible (i.e. allegation has been made in good faith, confidentially and without malice, that is based on facts and which has not been the subject of a previous allegation);
- The particular policy or policies that may have been breached; and
- Whether an investigation is warranted based on the information provided.

Instructional Practice

Refers to the tactics and strategies faculty or instructors use to create and nurture an engaging educational environment that supports durable, inclusive learning. This includes, but is not limited to, the varied ways in which information is delivered, active learning strategies, evaluation planning, assessments and feedback, use of class time, student resources and supports used, classroom management and student engagement strategies. Different educational environments (e.g., lab, shop, WIL) may require additional or differentiated elements to best support student learning.

Intellectual Property

Intellectual property means the intangible or intellectual nature of works or creations that is unique or original, any tangible expressions thereof and includes the rights arising from the legal protection of intellectual property including patents, inventions, research data, databases, trademarks, copyright, industrial designs, integrated circuit topographies, trade secrets, confidential information, know-how and all applications/registrations throughout the world relating to the foregoing.

Internal Candidate

A full-time employee of the College working in administration, Ontario Public Service Employees Union (OPSEU) Local 353, or OPSEU Local 354.

Internal Equivalency

Refers to the official acknowledgment of previous courses completed at Durham College. Equivalent courses completed at Durham College shall be transferrable among Durham College's certificates and diplomas. Courses for which internal equivalency has been recognized will use the previous course and numeric grade received and will be included in the calculation of a student's grade point average. Where an equivalency cannot be built within the College's student information system, a substitution or exemption will be utilized.

For internal courses to be accepted as equivalent, the passing grade must meet the minimum grade to pass the current course. Internal equivalency requests require a completed application form and detailed course outlines for assessment. There is no charge for this service.

Internet Website

A collection of related web pages, images, videos, or other digital assets that are reached via a common web address (unique resource locator - URL) and are accessible to the public.

Intersex

Refers to a person whose biological sex is ambiguous. "Intersex" refers to people whose bodies, reproductive systems, chromosomes and/or hormones are not easily characterized as male or female. This might include a woman with XY chromosomes or a man with ovaries instead of testes. Although intersex people may share issues in common with transgender people, it is inaccurate to describe them as transgender. Transgender people are not born with atypical sexual and reproductive systems. The term intersex is not interchangeable with or a synonym for transgender.

Intersectionality

Intersectionality is the way in which people's lives are shaped by their multiple and overlapping identities and social locations, which, together, can produce a unique and distinct experience for that individual or group, for example, creating additional barriers, opportunities, and/or power imbalances. In the context of race and Indigenous identity, this means recognizing the ways in which people's experiences of racism or privilege, including within any one group, may vary depending on the individual's or group's relationship to additional overlapping or intersecting social identities, like religion, ethnic origin, gender, age, disabilities or citizenship and immigration status. An intersectional analysis enables better understanding of the impacts of any one particular systemic barrier by considering how that barrier may be interacting with other related factors.

Intimate Relationships

Intimate relationships occur between people of all racial, economic, educational and religious backgrounds, in heterosexual and same-sex relationships, living together or separately, married or unmarried, and in short-or long-term relationships.

Refers to the system of calculating academic achievement in a program by dividing the total number of grade points earned to date in a program by the total number of instructional hours for the courses taken to date in that program.

Program Health Matrix (PHM 2.0)

The program health matrix is a report prepared by the Office of Research Services, Innovation and Entrepreneurship that provides data outlining the 'health' of a program particularly, performance and sustainability. The PHM 2.0 includes a variety of indicators to assess the program's quality and sustainability to help identify program's areas of strength and concern.

Program Intake Suspension

Occurs when it is decided not to offer a particular cohort intake due to low enrolment or other circumstances. An intake suspension refers to the semester (i.e.: Winter intake). If a program intake has been suspended for three consecutive application cycles, it will be considered for indefinite or permanent suspension. A program that has an intake suspension will remain 'active' with MCU.

Program of Study

The Program of Study (POS) maps the curriculum and course sequence for an Academic Program of Instruction, including course codes, descriptions and learning outcomes, essential employability skills (as required), general education/breadth course requirements, learning and evaluation plans, PLAR opportunities, pre/co-requisites, credits, and course delivery modes.

Program Quality Assurance Process (PQAP)

The program quality assurance process is an internal comprehensive, integrated framework that monitors and is focused on continuous improvement of the quality of programs and processes to support academic excellence and a successful student experience.

Program Review, Targeted

A targeted program review is a study of one or more specific elements/criterion of a program and may require further research, consultation with stakeholders, and analysis and may result in recommendations and action plan for improvement.

Program Review Team

Each program under comprehensive review is assigned a Program Review Team which consists of the executive dean/dean/associate dean or director, a program review facilitator to lead the review (faculty member), and at least two other faculty members who teach within the program. The faculty members designated as review team members are assigned by the appropriate executive dean/dean/director.

Program Team

A program team includes individuals and faculty with knowledge expertise in the specific field, the executive dean/dean, associate dean, and may include technicians/technologists. In the case of new program development, the program team could also include course developers, stakeholders, industry representatives, and community partners.

Progressive Discipline, Students

A process that promotes positive student behaviour and enables the College to choose from a continuum of interventions and supports to address inappropriate student behaviour.

Property

Property refers to any owned or leased land, buildings or other physical assets allocated in law to Durham College.

Prospect

Any individual, corporation, foundation or organization that has the potential to make a gift to the College.

Prospect Clearance

A formalized activity conducted regularly to ensure that the assignment of prospects for approved fundraising initiatives is conducted in a co-ordinated fashion. Three principles guide the decisions of prospect clearance:

- Solicitation of prospects will be co-ordinated to ensure funding for college activities of the highest priority.
- In the context of a specific initiative, the case for support identifies the rationale and academic priorities for a fundraising strategy. If an individual proposes to raise other funds for items not identified in the case for support, the prospect clearance process will assess this activity relative to those listed in the case for support. This evaluation will be done in consultation with the president of Durham College.
- A donor-centred approach will be taken to ensure the prospect's needs are taken into consideration.

Prospect Database

A confidential database that:

- Lists prospects with fundamental information, such as address, telephone number, email and title;
- Identifies the solicitor for these prospects;
- Identifies the project for which these prospects are being cultivated;
- Identifies prospect relationship; actions taken; requested amount;
- Tracks activity on contact with the prospect.

Protocol, Research

The description of the project that is included in the application submitted to the Durham College Research Ethics Board (REB).

Qualified Applicant

Antisemitism is latent or overt hostility, or hatred directed towards, or discrimination against, individual Jewish people or the Jewish people for reasons connected to their religion, ethnicity, and their cultural, historical, intellectual, and religious heritage.

Racism-Anti-Black Racism

Anti-Black racism is prejudice, attitudes, beliefs, stereotyping and discrimination that is directed at people of African descent and is rooted in their unique history and experience of enslavement and its legacy. Anti-Black racism is deeply entrenched in Canadian institutions, policies and practices, to the extent that anti-Black racism is either functionally normalized or rendered invisible to the larger White society. Anti-Black racism is manifest in the current social, economic, and political marginalization of African Canadians, which includes unequal opportunities, lower socio-economic status, higher unemployment, significant poverty rates and overrepresentation in the criminal justice system.

Racism - Anti-Indigenous Racism

Anti-Indigenous racism is the ongoing race-based Discrimination, negative stereotyping, and injustice experienced by Indigenous Peoples within Canada. It includes ideas and practices that establish, maintain and perpetuate power imbalances, systemic barriers, and inequitable outcomes that stem from the legacy of colonial policies and practices in Canada. Systemic anti-Indigenous racism is evident in discriminatory federal policies such as the Indian Act and the residential school system. It is also manifest in the overrepresentation of Indigenous peoples in provincial criminal justice and child welfare systems, as well as inequitable outcomes in education, well-being, and health. Individual lived experiences of anti-Indigenous racism can be seen in the rise in acts of hostility and violence directed at Indigenous people.

Racism – Islamophobia

Islamophobia is racism, stereotypes, prejudice, fear, or acts of hostility directed towards individual Muslims or followers of Islam in general. In addition to individual acts of intolerance and racial profiling, Islamophobia can lead to viewing and treating Muslims as a greater security threat on an institutional, systemic, and societal level.

Raiser's Edge

An online listing of further education opportunities available to Durham College graduates.

Transgender

An umbrella term describing a diverse community of people whose gender identity differs from that which they were designated at birth on the basis of physical sex characteristics. It also refers to expressions and identities that challenge the binary male/female gender system in a given culture. Transgender people may or may not decide to alter their bodies hormonally and/or surgically.

Transitioning

Refers to the complex process of altering one's birth sex over a long period of time. Transition includes some or all of the following personal, legal and medical adjustments: telling one's family, friends and/or co-workers; changing one's name and/or sex on legal documents; hormone therapy; and possibly (though not always) one or more forms of surgery.

Transsexual

An older term which originated in the medical and psychological communities to describe a person whose sex assigned at birth does not correspond with their gender identity. Although some transsexual people still prefer to use the term to describe themselves, many transgender people prefer the term transgender to transsexual. Unlike transgender, transsexual is not an umbrella term.

Two-Spirit

Some Aboriginal people choose to identify as Two-Spirit rather than, or in addition to, identifying as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or queer. Two-Spirited persons were often visionaries, healers and medicine people in their communities. The term Two-Spirit affirms the interrelatedness of all aspects of identity – including gender, sexuality, community, culture and spirituality.
