

INTERNATIONAL

Be a GLOBAL LEARNER

Earn a Global Learner badge at graduation

---

Expand your knowledge. Become more globally aware.

How does it work?

Participate in activities and gain points in 4 key knowledge areas.
Get 100 points and earn a Global Learner badge when you graduate.

01

CULTURAL AWARENESS

POINTS

- Join a student-run group and participate for a minimum 1 semester (each group). ----- 10
- Lead a student-run group for a minimum 1 semester. ----- 25
- Attend cultural events on or off campus (each event). ----- 05
- Complete a personal/professional development workshop on anti-racism, power and privilege, allyship, cultural awareness or global competency (each workshop). ----- 10
- Complete a culturally centered academic course. ----- 25

02

GLOBAL LEARNING

- Participate in a Faculty-Led Classroom Abroad. ----- 25
- Study or work abroad for a semester or a summer. ----- 25
- Complete a virtual global learning experience, such as Faculty-Led Classroom Abroad@Home. ----- 25
- Independent essay on the importance of global learning (video, minimum 5 minutes, or essay minimum 1,000 words). ----- 10
- Complete an academic course that focuses on global learning (for example, global citizenship, international business, etc). ----- 25

03

GLOBAL CONNECTIONS

- Learn a new language or have studied in a language other than English in previous studies. ----- 15
- Volunteer for a semester with the DC Crew or International Student Mentorship Program. ----- 25
- Join the Institute for Student Leadership for a minimum one semester. ----- 25

04

GLOBAL SUSTAINABILITY

- Complete a course that focuses on sustainability (for example, Ethics and Sustainability). ----- 25
- Complete the sustainability modules available in the Global Sustainability section of the Global Competency course. ----- 25